FROM: AZAPO SECRETARY FOR PUBLICITY & INFORMATION

DATE: April 3, 2024

SUBJECT: AZAPO STATEMENT ON THE RESIGNATION OF PARLIAMENT SPEAKER NOSIVIWE MAPISA-NQAKULA

AZAPO welcomes the resignation of the Republic of South Africa Parliament's Speaker, Nosiviwe Mapisa-Nqakula.

It is always a win for the country and her democracy, when those in power succumb to pressure which seeks to correct ills and bring stability for AZANIA and Her people.

The news of Mapisa-Nqakula's resignation affirm our consistent calls for wrongs to be corrected, no matter who commits them.

It further confirms that no public representative should be beyond reproach, equally - no amount of arrogance should make them believe that they own the positions they are entrusted with - to serve the country with diligence.

This resignation is not only a step in the right direction, but also evidence that when the right calls are made, sanity does prevail.

AZAPO further commits Herself to the selfless duty of being a committed protector of AZANIA.

We reiterate that AZAPO will not stand by and be mere observers of the continuous stripping of the rights of our masses.

Mapisa-Nqakula's resignation is not only a victory, but a step forward for our mission of achieving #MAKOYA FREEDOM.

END
